THE LOST WORLD | Tikal

It is one of the largest archeological sites and urban centers of the pre-Columbian Maya civilization. It is located in the archeological region of the Petén Basin in what is now northern Guatemala. Situated in the department of El Petén, the site is part of Guatemala's Tikal National Park and in 1979 it was declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Tikal was the capital of a conquest state that became one of the most powerful kingdoms of the ancient Maya.

WHAT YOU NEED TO know

ENTRANCE FEE

You can get it straight from CA Travelers by providing a photo of your passport when booking the tour or at the entrance of the National park.

PLEASE NOTICE

The sunrise and sunset entrance fee is Q100 extra from the Q150 site fee. Total for any of these 2 tour is Q250.

We understand that the info in the sign is confusing but believe us, they explain this when you get at the bank to buy your ticket.

NATIONAL PARK ENTRANCE

TIKAL is one hour and 30 minutes from Flores. After 1 hour you will arrive to the entrance of the National Park as you can see in the left photo above. You need to get your tickets there for the tour and for the museum (in case you will like to visit them) as then you continue 30 minutes all the way to the start part and hotels inside Tikal. So, there is no way you can return to buy an entrance that you forgot.

MUSEUM LÍTICA AND MUSEUM SYLVANUS G. MORLEY

Small museums with some artifacts, no photography allow. The first one really old and the second one done by the support of the Japanese Government with really nice artifact discovered during the excavations.

Tour

If you arrive in an overnight bus, a person will be waiting for you at the bus terminal and take you to a little restaurant to have breakfast (Not included) and if you need to store your luggage, no trouble, the same person will help you to store it at our allies office in Flores.

After the breakfast you need to wait at the letter "I LOVE PETEN" where all the shuttles park and take you to Tikal to start your adventure.

Now, if you travel during the day, you will be drop off at the letters "I LOVE PETEN" where you can take tuc tuc to the hostel you reserved. The island is not that big but, maybe you dont want to carry your luggage after a long trip in a shuttle. The next day this will be also the meeting point to get your shuttle to Tikal

But, if you decided to take that comfortable flight you will have two options.

- If arriving in the morning, the shuttle driver will be waiting to take you to a little restaurant at "I LOVE PETEN" in Flores to be close to the shuttle parking lot, so at 8am you continue to TIKAL.
- If you arrive in the afternoon and depending on the deal you choose, you will need to get a taxi or tuc tuc to Flores (Flores is 10 minutes from the airport). And be ready at the letter "I LOVE PETEN", next day at 8am to take the shuttle to TIKAL.

IF YOUR STAY WAS AT TIKAL

Our staff will let you know at what time you should at this information point waiting for the rest of the people and the guide to walk you inside of Tikal.

If you are in the early tour waiting at 6:30am there is only one diner open at that time ofering coffee, fruit, sandwiches and some snacks in case you need something to start the day. It is close to the first parking lot.
